Medicaid Services for Pregnant Women

Wyoming Department of Health — Commit to your health.

EqualityCare — Wyoming Medicaid

Presumptive Eligibility	Pregnant Women Program	Emergency Services
Eligibility Criteria • Pregnancy • Wyoming Residency • U.S. Citizenship • Social Security number • Gross family income cannot exceed 133% of Federal Poverty Level Verification • No eligibility factors need to be verified	Eligibility Criteria • Pregnancy • Wyoming Residency • U.S. Citizenship or Qualified Alien Status • Social Security number • Gross family income cannot exceed 133% of the Federal Poverty Level Verification • Citizenship • Identity	Eligibility Criteria • Pregnancy • Wyoming Residency • Non U.S. Citizenship • Social Security number not required • Gross family income cannot exceed 133% of the Federal Poverty Level Verification • No eligibility factors need to be verified
Application Process • Visit Qualified Provider (QP) • QP submits Simplified Online PE Application • QP will assist with completing the Healthcare Coverage Application • QP furnishes approval or denial notice	Application Process • Complete Healthcare Coverage Application • Return completed form to local DFS office • DFS furnishes approval or denial notice	Application Process • Complete Healthcare Coverage Application • Return completed form to local DFS office • DFS furnishes approval or denial notice
Services • Outpatient • Labor and delivery not covered	Services • Full Medicaid Benefits	Services • Emergency Services-including labor and delivery
Who Determines Eligibility • Qualified Providers	Who Determines Eligibility • Department of Family Services	Who Determines Eligibility • Department of Family Services

June 2008

EqualityCare
Eligibility Unit